

Life Ready Series

Preparing to Fly the Nest: Summer Edition

Learn strategies to create a plan to alleviate some of the challenges and stressors your military kid might face during the first years away from home. This webinar provides parents with detailed information about paperwork, healthcare, finances, social/emotional needs and homesickness so that teens are ready to head off on their own.

Show Me the Money

A primary aspiration for good parenting is teaching our kids good money habits. Paying children for chores at home and fostering a moneywise home environment can provide opportunities to teach math concepts and key life skills. This webinar will address saving, spending, budgeting, entrepreneurship and investing.
